

MASP Webinar
“Improving School Psychological Service Delivery
Using the NASP Practice Model”
April 15, 2021 10am-12pm Livestreamed & Recorded for Ongoing Offerings

Program Application #: 126126

Description: In this webinar, Sarah L. England, EdS, NCSP, will present “Improving School Psychological Service Delivery Using the NASP Practice Model.” This presentation will cover the updated 2020 Standards from the Model for Comprehensive and Integrated School Psychological Services (the Practice Model). This will include a discussion of the differences between the previous standards and the updated standards, strategies for working toward the implementation of the model, and the connection between the comprehensive role of school psychologists and student outcomes. The Excellence in School Psychology Services (ESPS) recognition program and its benefit to school psychologists and their districts will be overviewed as well. As a result of this webinar, attendees will 1) have an understanding of the NASP Practice Model, 2) have a higher awareness of the connection of the comprehensive role of school psychologists to student outcomes, 3) be aware of multiple strategies for working towards implementation of the model in their district, and 4) have knowledge of the Excellence in School Psychology Services (ESPS) recognition program, including its requirements and how it can be used to develop, maintain, and recognize services within a district. This webinar will be livestreamed on April 15 from 10am-12pm (ET). It is open to school psychologists and any other school-based professionals seeking to gain knowledge in the presentation topic. Participation will be verified by requiring attendees to complete a google docs form with the correct SCECH codes after completion of the webinar. MASP no longer charges attendees a fee for SCECHs, however there is a registration fee for the webinar which varies depending on membership status (Regular Members: free, Non-Members: $10). More information can be found on the MASP website: <https://masp.wildapricot.org/Events>.
